

The Art of Autism Project

The National Autism Association of Central Texas is partnering with VSA Arts of Texas for the 2011 'The Art of Autism' project as a celebration of the many artistic talents of individuals with Autism.

NAACT is partnering with VSA Arts of Texas for the 2011 'The Art of Autism' project as a celebration of the many artistic talents of individuals with Autism. In January and February of 2011 we will be collecting art from the Autism community. Each participant's artwork will be displayed in a special section of the NAACT website, www.artofautismproject.org and at Kerbey Lane Café, where it will be sold!

Proceeds will go for:

- free ABA, RDI, biomedical, and other workshops
- grants to families in the central Texas area

Here's how you participate

Contact NAACT and we will supply 8x10 canvas art boards for your artists. These art boards work well with oil, acrylic, or tempera paints. All art medium is welcome and encouraged. Fill out the application and attach to the back of students' art-off artwork at one of the following locations or you us at 512.656.6099 or email us at artofautism@naacentraltexas.org to schedule a pick up. Deadline for submittals is Feb 19, 2011.
